GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of two cents to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of two cents to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of two cents to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of two cents to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of one cent to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of one cent to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of one cent to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.

Use of Library—All residents of Pittsburgh and all non-residents permanently employed in the city may draw books upon making proper application, blanks for which may be had at the desk. Other non-residents may draw books upon payment of $1.00 per year.

Loan Privileges—Each adult borrower may have charged on his card at one time such books of non-fiction as may be needed together with two books of fiction, only one of which may be less than one year old, and one current magazine. Fiction is loaned for two weeks; non-fiction for four weeks and current magazines for seven days. These loan periods are never extended. A fine of two cents per day including Sundays and holidays is charged for each book overdue.

Lost Cards—In case of loss, adult cards may be replaced two weeks after notice of such loss has been given at the library, and upon payment of ten cents; juvenile cards under same condition, or six months after notice of loss, without payment of fine.

Reserves—Non-fiction may be reserved and a notice sent upon payment of one cent to cover postage. Books thus reserved are held for 48 hours.

Branch Messenger Service—Any circulating book in the main collection needed at the branch will be delivered there on the same day it is asked for provided the request is made before 3 P. M.

Recommendations—Suggestions as to additions to the library's collection are welcomed and will be given careful consideration.

Bulletin—This bulletin is issued on or about the tenth of each month except August or September. It may be had at the desk without charge.
